A comfortable layer of natural latex

The secondary layer (bearing surface): cold foam of high density

1 / Environmental protection - use of natural rubber latex and cold foam of high concentration, lack of glue;

2 / antibacterial coating, protection against insects (mites) - use antibacterial material Rolygiene which is also used in health care facilities, material of outer cover consists of coffee strings, special protective material from the German company Evolon.

Mattress and its outer cover to be cleaned.

3 / Duplex material - high-tech structure with seven layers reduces mattress pressure on the body.
The mattress is two-way, each party A and B has the structure - a firmer and softer. Everyone chooses for himself the other side of the mattress on which he will be comfortable.

4 / creative ideas - Analysis of data from more than a thousand people who tested the mattress now, more than a hundred different material improvements and technologies; a new level by optimizing the mattress sides, stitches, etc.

5 / Easy to carry - folding mattress is very light, so young people can pack it up and move to another location.

Information

The basic structure consists of mattress materials for bedding and processed duplicate materials.
Highlights:
Testing for durability and lifespan surpass the requirements of GOST.
The height of the mattress surface may be at least 90% of the original height before using.

Usage of two-sided mattress

We had a lot of different people, who like different degrees of hardness / softness of the mattress. As a result, multi-layered mattress has a soft top layer and a solid bottom. You will experience a moderate and proper support for your entire body. If young people sleep poorly because of worry and anxiety, for good and healthy sleep you just need a mattress 8H.

Double-sided mattress, hard and soft side to choose.
